MOUNT ARARAT COUNSELING CENTER (MACC)

Grief is a necessary and natural process after a significant loss. The Mount Ararat Counseling Center has designed the Grief, Comfort and Healing Support Group to help the survivor adapt to the loss of a loved one and to be able to adjust to a new world and reality without him or her. The goals of the group include educating members to the reality that grief is a process, to provide emotional support, to encourage social interaction and to discover new personal strengths and resources. The support group meets the second and fourth Saturday at 2pm every month. For additional information, contact Dr. Taunya Tinsley, Mount Ararat Counseling Center at 412-441-3501.
